NAMES.

A.

G. Ευφροσυνη.

L. Euphragia.

I. Eufrasia.

G. Augentroſt.

F. Eufraiſe.

S. Eufraſia.

D. Dogen-trooſt.

EYEBRIGHT.

PLACE.

In Fields, and on Commons.

DESCRIPTION

The Root is Woody, of a clay-colour, from which grows branches out 1, of a brownish green, thinly set with white H are not always produced by Pairs, but as in the Figure, being ribb'd and shining. The Back is of a lighter Colour. The Cup 3, is a li Stripes, terminating in the Points. The Flowers 4, are white, with a y Middle of the lower Leaf; and a Stripe of Purple on each Side of purplish white, the End inclining to yellow, the under Part is fring Hairs. Two white Chives with black Summits. Seed-Veſſel is a light nified, A Flower ſideways 4; in Front 4; Calix 3, open'd 6; this sh and Style. The Chive and Summit 7, another 8, two Leaves 9 and

VIRTUES.

This Plant is said to help Dimneſs of Sight, to ſtrengthe ing Eyes, &c.

T. Sheldrake delin.